

The County of Dorset (Prohibition of Driving) (St Alban Street, Weymouth) Experimental Order 2019

Notice is hereby given that Dorset Council in exercise of its powers under Sections 1, 2, 3, 9, 10 and Part IV of Schedule 9 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (“the Act”) and all other enabling powers, after consultation with the Chief Officer of the Police in accordance with Part III of Schedule 9 to the Act hereby makes the above Experimental Traffic Order (“the Order”).

The Order will come into operation on 7 June 2019 and will introduce prohibition of driving on those parts of roads detailed below and illustrated on the plan accompanying this notice.

The effect of the Order will be to introduce a prohibition of driving between 10.30am and 5.30pm the following lengths of St Alban Street in Weymouth:

- From its junction with Maiden Street to its junction with East Street
- From its junction with East Street to its junction with Esplanade

Relevant exemptions will apply where appropriate and as necessary in accordance with the provisions of the Order.

The reasons for proceeding by way of experimental order is to assess the effects of the changes before Dorset Council consider whether the provisions of the experimental Traffic Order shall continue in force indefinitely.

The Order can continue in force for a maximum of 18 months. Within a period of 6 months from the coming into operation of the Order, or within 6 months of any subsequent variation or modification to the Order coming into force, whichever may be the later, any person may object to the making of a permanent order. Any such objection must be in writing, stating the grounds on which it is made and be addressed to Regulation Team, (2273/1/48), Dorset Highways, Dorset Council, County Hall, Colliton Park, Dorchester, Dorset, DT1 1XJ or sent by email to Regulation-TRO@dorsetcc.gov.uk.

A copy of the Order together with a plan showing the lengths of roads affected and a statement of reasons for making the Order may be inspected from Monday to Friday during normal office hours at:- Main Reception, Dorset Council, County Hall, Colliton Park, Dorchester.
